

Are you Eligible for this New Round of Stimulus Check?

If you live in the state of California you are about to receive a brand new stimulus check.

Governor Gavin Newsom signed additional COVID-19 relief legislation this week that will provide $600 stimulus checks to the majority of his state's residents as well as additional payments to dependents, Newsweek reported.

At the end of June, the Democratic governor reached an agreement with state lawmakers to approve the direct payments, as well as billions in other economic relief, according to Newsweek.

"$600 checks are coming to 2/3 of Californians. And if you have a kid, you can benefit from an additional $500," Newsom tweeted on May 11.

Are you Eligible for this New Round of Stimulus Check?

Who's eligible?

- California's residents earning up to $75,000 a year will receive the $600 direct payment.
- As stated by the governor on May 11, parents or guardians will receive further payments of $500 for dependent children.
- Undocumented immigrant families will also receive payments of $500.

Are you Eligible for this New Round of Stimulus Check?

What to do to qualify for another California Stimulus payment

- 1. File your 2020 taxes by October 15.
- 2. Have a California adjusted gross income of up to $75,000
- 3. Have wages of $75,000 or less
- 4. Have lived in California for more than half the 2020 tax year.
- 5. Be a California resident when the stimulus check is issued.
- 6. Not be eligible to be claimed as a dependent on someone else's taxes.

Here's what you need to do to qualify to California's new stimulus check. ??

Are you Eligible for this New Round of Stimulus Check?

"In total, about $8.1 billion has been set aside to cover the costs of all the new stimulus checks. State officials estimate that two out of every three residents in California will receive a direct payment. Considering that California is home to about 39.5 million people, this means more than 26 million residents should receive stimulus checks. Officials have said the payments will arrive sometime in September," Jason Lemon writes for Newsweek.

Besides the three federal stimulus checks approved by Congress that most U.S. citizens already received –First, a direct payment of $1,200, then another direct payment of $600, and the third round of stimulus check, $1,400, pushed by the Democratic Congress only without any type of Republican support– this new $600 California stimulus check will be the second direct payments to be approved on the state.

This is a summary of the Newsweek Magazine piece 'California Stimulus Check: Who Is Eligible for New \$600 Payments?' written by Jason Lemon, originally published on July 15 at 10:35 AM.

